

Aloha Karate-ka,
A big ossu and warm greetings from sunny Hawaii!

J.K.A. Hawaii, in affiliation with Sensei Masataka - Chairman of J.K.A. SKDI, take pleasure in announcing an International Invitational JKA Winter Training Gasshuku Seminar and Gradings to be held in Honolulu, Hawaii, Friday, January 20 – Sunday, January 22, 2012.

Sensei Mori, Chief Guest Instructor, will be returning to his roots. Hawaii has always been a special place for Sensei Mori as this was the first location Sensei Mori began instructing outside of Japan from 1963 – 1968.

The Gasshuku Seminar weekend will take place both in an indoor setting as well as outdoors, on the glistening sun-drenched beaches and palm-lined parks of Waikiki all in the shadow of the famous and iconic Diamond Head. Instruction will be given by Sensei Mori himself as well as guest JKA members from Japan. In addition to local JKA karate-ka, as well as from a variety of locations on the US Mainland, there will also be contingent of karate-ka coming from Japan.

Start planning your visit to Hawaii NOW! Come and train and enjoy Hawaii! Discounts for early bird registration! A variety of different levels of accommodation will be available all within close proximity to gasshuku training.

Dan gradings (with pre-registration and recommendation by your dojo head) will also be held.

Details to follow! Initial enquiries can be made to: karate@jkahawaii.com
